

<http://www.darvill.clara.net/altenerg/>

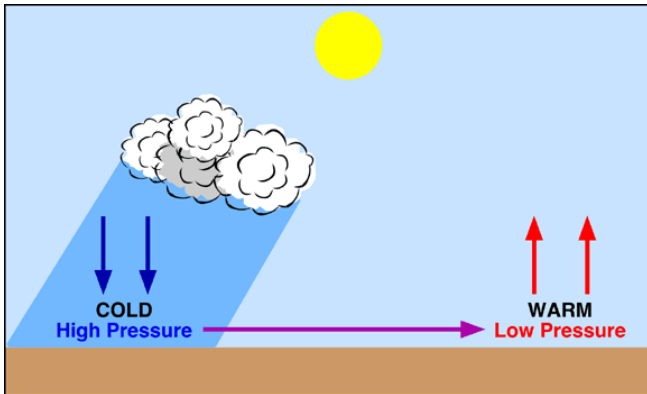

1. Introduction

How long have we used wind power? _____

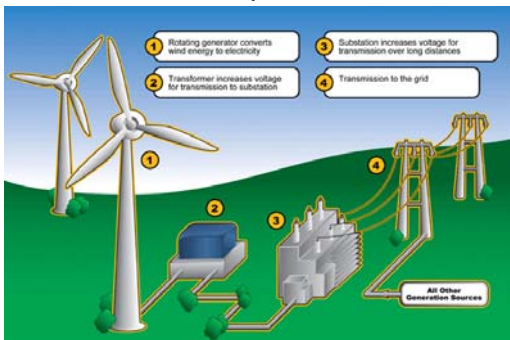

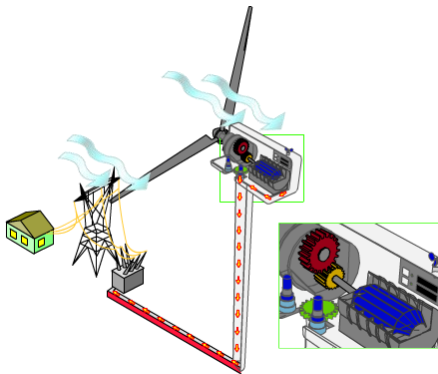

How were we using wind? _____

1. How it works

Describe how wind is created:

Describe how a wind turbine works:

2. Where can you find wind-farms and why?

3. Advantages and disadvantages

Advantages:	Disadvantages:

4. Summary

- Wind Power is renewable
- Doesn't cause pollution, doesn't need fuel
- Need a lot of generators to get a sensible amount of power
- Need to put them where winds are reliable

5. Quiz:

Wind power is _____, does not need any _____ and does not produce any _____.

However, you need a lot of _____ to make a large amount of power, and you must put them where the winds are _____ and _____.

Wind farms can be _____ if you live close. Most wind farms in the UK are in _____ and _____.